

WIFE MURDER CHARGED

Warrant Issued for the Arrest of the Widower.

DEATH CERTIFICATE FURNISHED

Typhoid Fever Alleged Cause of Death, but Gossiping Neighbors Started the Police Authorities to Investigate the Many Rumors.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., July 14.—J. B. Queensberry, of Forest Depot, eight miles from here, was arrested today at that place on a warrant charging him with beating, choking and kicking his wife, who died two weeks ago.

There has been considerable talk in the Forest Depot vicinity since the death of the woman, and the warrant today is the result.

The accused has a certificate from the attending physician certifying that his wife died of typhoid fever.

Queensberry was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 for a preliminary hearing on next Friday.

It is said that the circumstances of his wife's death, in spite of the allegations that he has a physician's certificate that she died from typhoid fever, was suspicious and the facts revealed seem to have been sufficient to justify the arrest.

Queensberry is said to have been a telegraph operator and to be highly connected.

Forest Depot is in Bedford county.

WOMAN SHOTS NINE TIMES AT MIDNIGHT HOUSEBREAKER

Mother Defends Herself With Revolver But Fails to Hit the Burglar.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
DANVILLE, VA., July 14.—Mrs. M. E. Womack, a widow, who lives on Holbrook avenue, had an exciting experience last night with a burglar.

Mrs. Womack and her two little girls were asleep in the house and about eleven o'clock Mrs. Womack was aroused by a noise at the kitchen window.

Securing a revolver, Mrs. Womack, from the window of her room, opened fire on the intruder, shooting nine times.

The burglar was exceptionally bold and was heard trying to force entrance from another window. It was not until several neighbors were attracted by the shooting that he left the premises.

About six weeks ago Mrs. Womack shot twice at a man who attempted to enter her bedroom through a window.

40,000 MINERS TO WORK.

Soft Coal Men Decide to Declare Strike Off.

(By Associated Press.)
HARRISBURG, PA., July 14.—The men in the colliers of the Central Pennsylvania Bituminous Coal District numbering nearly 40,000 who have been idle since April 1, when the mines closed down because the operators would not restore the scale of 1905, will resume work on practically the same scale as in 1905.

The agreement to do this was made today in a conference that was Secretary Wilson, of the United Mine workers of America, and representatives of the districts in the affected territory.

LAWYER DIVORCE DEFENDANT.

Mrs. Ashley Says Her Husband Is Maintaining Another Home.

Mrs. Jennie B. W. Ashley, who lives at No. 59 West 105th street, has brought an action in the Supreme Court for a divorce from Frank M. Ashley, a lawyer, says the New York Herald.

They were married eighteen years ago. Since their separation he has been paying $80 a month to her for the support of herself and two children. The charge Mrs. Ashley makes is that her husband deserted her for another woman, with whom, she says, he is maintaining a home in West 113th street.

WANTS $4,000 ANNUALLY.

Claim of First Presbyterian Church from Kennedy Estate.

Argument will be made Friday, in Special Term, Part 1, of the Supreme Court, to dismiss the suit brought by the First Presbyterian Church, in Fifth avenue, against Henry Van Rensselaer Kennedy, as administrator of the estate of Rachael Lenox Kennedy, to recover a yearly income of $4,000 alleged to have been bequeathed to the estate by the will of Mrs. Kennedy, says the New York Tribune.

The suit has been dragging through the courts for about four years, and since the original filing of the complaint by the church it has pressed the suit with little vigor.

Mrs. Kennedy died in July, 1898. For years she had been one of the most generous supporters of the church, with which the Lenox family had been identified since its foundation. Many of the family are buried in the old churchyard.

About 1894 the attendance and membership of the church began to decrease. Many of the older members died and others moved away. As a result a large number of the members wished either to have the church moved further uptown or else consolidated with the University Place Presbyterian Church, at University Place, and 11th street. Mrs. Kennedy was unalterably opposed to either move. The church officers declared that to keep the church at 11th street and Fifth avenue it was imperative that they have an income of at least $4,000 clear and above all expenses of maintenance. To keep the church in its present location Mrs. Kennedy is alleged to have agreed to pay it $4,000 yearly and after her death to set aside that amount yearly from her estate. Since her death, in 1898, Mr. Kennedy as administrator of the estate, has refused to pay that amount.

Mr. Kennedy alleges that Mrs. Kennedy made no such agreement of contract with the church. He says that she agreed in June, 1891, to contribute $4,000 for two years only toward the maintenance of a settled pastor, and later extended the offer to a third year. He denies absolutely that she agreed to or did make any provision to make a yearly contribution of $4,000 to the church from her estate.

CHINESE WOUNDS WOMAN

Mrs. Fenn Happens to be in the Zone of Fire When Tong Feud Breaks Out.

What is believed to be the result of one Tong to gain possession of the other's laundry, in No. 304 West Twenty-second street, resulted last night in a attempt to shoot the manager of the laundry, Charlie Rice, and the wounding of a woman on the opposite side of the street. One of the bullets struck her in the ankle, says the New York Herald.

Charlie Rice was sitting alone in the place when Wing Sling dropped in. He belongs to another Tong, which conducts a rival monopoly in the laundry business.

An altercation between the men started, during which Sling darted into the laundry. An instant later there were two shots, and Rice, who had been standing on the sidewalk before the door of his laundry, gave a yell, which was echoed with greater volume from across the street, where Mrs. Mary Fenn, fifty years old, of No. 28 Belmont avenue, Jersey City, had dropped to the sidewalk.

Policeman Ferry, of the West Twentieth street station, ran into the laundry a few minutes later. He found Wing Sling, but could find no weapon.

Wing was taken to the stationer's house, while Mrs. Fenn was taken to the office of Dr. Joseph E. Messenger, of No. 293 West Twentieth street. There the bullet was extracted.

At the station house Wing sent a message in Chinese to a friend while Mrs. Fenn was unable to make herself intelligible. Mrs. Fenn was carried to the station, where she entered a charge of felonious assault against Wing.

KELLUM'S CONSTIPATION PILLS

Cures these ills by cleansing the stomach and regulating the bowels—then they contain no calomel or blue-mass to endanger your life. Physicians are looking for a substitute for these dangerous drugs, and you should, too. When the bowels refuse to move regularly, the system becomes full of poisonous and decayed matter. Eruptions and pimples spring up; there is a bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, coated tongue, tired feeling, dull sensation about the eyes, drowsiness and languor, loss of appetite and general debility. If you want to rid yourself of these troubles, get a box of these wonder-workers, only 10 cents. In the preparation of these pills the most scrupulous care is taken and the ingredients form the most successful purely vegetable combination ever discovered. Ask your druggist about them.
